

Thrilling Race Marks Games of Singer A. A.

Bennis, of New York A. C., Surprises Walsha in 40-Yard Hurdles.

COMES FROM BEHIND AND GRABS VICTORY

Georgi Also Makes Sensational Finish in Capturing 220-Yard Dash.

By A. C. CAVAGNARO.

Charles A. Walsha, junior and senior high hurdle champion of the metropolitan district, had victory snatched from him in the last few strides in the 40-yard handicap hurdle race at the games of the Singer Athletic Association, held before a crowd of 5,000 spectators at Elizabethport, N. J., yesterday.

Frank Bennis, representing the New York Athletic Club, was the youngster who turned in the unexpected trick that thrilled the crowd. With the finish only two yards away the Knights of St. Anthony athlete saw his Winged Foot rival shoot by him to win by two feet.

Twenty men faced H. P. Odell, the starter, and with long strides Walsha chased after his rivals. He made amazingly fast progress, becoming a contender on the home stretch. Going over the final hurdle Walsha swept by his rival into the lead, but in the sprint to the tape the sturdy Bennis made up ground by inches to catch his opponent.

Stands Too Small.

It was a big crowd that watched the race. The wooden stands surrounding the field proved inadequate to accommodate the large assemblage, many standing several feet deep around the track, while several hundred others sought seats on the park fence. Others perched on the roofs of nearby buildings.

A more spectacular victory could not have been gained than that of Raymond Georgi, junior, in the 220-yard dash. In the final heat of the 220-yard race, the little fellow literally burst through the track in the last few yards. With the other runners crowded in his van, it looked as if he would lose the race. But in an opening, Georgi broke through to take the lead in the last three yards. He won by several feet.

John Clark, of the Mohawk Athletic Club, and Charles Muck, a Salem, Mass., member, were inches apart as they finished the race. In fighting his way through from the two-yard mark, he made the virtual scratch man, Georgi made the last time of 22-4-5.

Stanley Coleman, a member of the Syracuse Athletic Association, faced a situation of two years when he assumed the judges' stand. The race had ended an effort was made to find him, but to no avail. The matter will be considered by the local committee at a meeting to-night, and no doubt Coleman will be indefinitely suspended.

Wales Loses Star in H. W. Thomas—George Randle Also Falls.

By Cable to the Tribune.

London, Oct. 1.—The war's toll in the ranks of Rugby football has been so great that the game has been almost entirely abandoned in the British Isles. The latest list, which contains the names of three prominent players killed in action, brings the number to last year's total of 1,000. The game has been almost entirely abandoned in the British Isles.

Age Conquers Youth.

The veteran Dick Remer was another winner. He gave a magnificent performance in the 40-yard hurdle race, but he was not able to win the two-mile walk from the scratch mark. Willie Plant, the Long Island Athletic Club athlete, led the scratch mark with Remer, but the youth could not cope with the speed of his experienced rival.

Two laps from home Remer was in front, while Plant held fourth position. In the last lap Remer held a lead of twenty yards over Plant, and during the last quarter mile the New York man added ten more yards to this advantage.
